Editors of the Dispatch: In your answer to the inquiry of "Wiem," in to-day's paper, you say that Hanover county was or ganized in 1820. You doubtless intended to say 1720, as Hanover county was formed in that year from New Kent county.

The Rev. Samuel Davies, April 14, 1747. obtained a license from Governor Gooch and the Council "to assemble and meet any congregations of Dissenters at the several meeting-houses on the lands of Samuel Morris, David Rice, and Stephen Lacy, in Hanover county, and on the lands of Thomas Watkins, in Henrico county, without molestation." Mr. Davies not only wrote letters "from Hanover" to his Presbyterian friends in London in 1756, but had visited London "from Hanover" in 1753. His residence was in Hanover county about twelve miles from Richmond. [See Dr. Foote's "Sketches of Virginia," first and second series, and "Howe's Historical Collections of Virgi-

I have in my possession a small volume printed in London in 1758, entitled "The Curse of Cowardice-A Sermon Preached to the Militia of Hanover County, in Virginia, at a General Muster May 8, 1258, with a View to Raise a Company for Captain Samuel Meredith."

corner of Broad and Ninth streets. THE DUTY OF WOMAN.—TO BE attractive is a duty which every lady owes to herself, to her domestic circle, and to society. Not only should she endeavor to please in address and in apparel, but, whenever possible, in complexion and in feature as well. Facial embellishment is to a lady as proper, and oftentimes as necessary, as are the adoruments of her raiment, the artificial graces of her conversation, or other meretricious attractions upon which depend so much of her dominion and influence over man. The woman who permits herself to become unlovely, who resigns herself hopelessly to the ravages of time, and the spointion of her charms, visits upon her friends and admirers a sorrowful regret that it becomes her to avert to the latest day. Of this social duty it may truthfully be said that she can best acquit herself by the use of GOURAUD'S OLYMPIAN CREAM. No other preparation approaches this in excellence, in harmlessness, and purity. Its advertisement has hitherto been its merit, its recommendation by all that have used it, and not by sounding and pretentious advertising in the journals of the day.
